Glamorous Flights Under Way Throughout World

LAURA INGALLS TO START FLIGHT OVER ATLANTIC

2 FRENCHMEN AFTER PARIS TO TOKIO NON-STOP FLIGHT
PRIZE

F. C. CHICHESTER IS ENROUTE
FROM AUSTRALIA TO JA-PAN

By United Press
Glamorous flying endeavors were underway today in several sections of the world.

Two Frenchmen, Joseph Lebrich and Marcel Doret, were presumed to be flying high over Siberia in their flight from Paris to Tokio. They passed over Moscow last night, an hour ahead of the schedule they had set for themselves.

At Waynoka, Okla., Laura Ingalls waited for clearing weather before starting for New York from where she will take off on a trans-Atlantic flight attempt.

Meanwhile an army ambulance sped
across the country from El Paso, Tex., carrying Private Olaf Nelson of the army who is slowly starving after swallowing two teeth. They are taking him to Washington where efforts will be made to have Dr. Chevalier Jackson of Philadelphia dislodge the teeth.

F. C. Chichester, enroute from Australia to Japan, is expected at Manila shortly after arriving safely at Mati Davao.

Harry Russell of Dearborn, Mich., was in the lead of the Ford trophy flight today as the aviators planned to leave Montgomery, Ala., for Gulfport, Miss., and New Orleans.

Reginald Robbins and Harold S.
Jones, whose attempt to make a non-stop refueling flight from Seattle to Tokio was frustrated by bad weather, are enroute to Seattle from Fairbanks, Alaska, hoping to make another start shortly on the trans-Pacific attempt.

Edward Maloney and Seth Yerrington, flying a plane known as the Captain Carranza after the illustrious Mexican flier who was killed several years ago, were enroute from Rosevelt field to Mexico City on a non-stop flight.

A pilot for the Mexican Aviation company reported today that he had seen an airplane, believed to be the Captain Carranza in which Seth Yerrington and Edward Maloney were making a non-stop flight from New York to Mexico City, cranked up on the beach about 60 miles south of Brownsville. The pilot said he saw two men on the beach beside the plane, apparently unhurt.

Captain George Emmanand Alex-
Roosevelt field today on a proposed flight to Budapest.

RALPH CAPONE GAINS CONTINUANCE LIQUOR CHARGE CASE

Chicago, July 13.—(UP)—Ralph Capone, dapper brother of "Scarface Al," appeared in federal court today with 12 co-defendants and gained a continuance until Sept. 21 on his trial on liquor conspiracy charges.

Capone's legal advisors had no part in obtaining the continuance. Judge John B. Barnes said it was necessary because summer vacations had reduced Chicago's judicial staffs.

The conspiracy charges against the young Capone grew out of his operation of several night clubs, in which the government charges the prohibition law was violated.

EXPECT TO SETTLE 200 HIGHWAY WORKERS' STRIKE

St. Paul, Minn., July 13.—(UP)— Amicable settlement of a strike by 200 highway workers near Cook was expected today, Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, announced.

Representatives at the scene of the controversy reported that they expected to get an assurance from the contractor that the striking workers will be paid 45 cents an hour, minimum wage set by Governor Floyd B.
Olson.

The highway workers who are clearing land for highway No. 11 said they were hired on an acreage basis and their pay amounted to a lower rate than the prescribed 45 cents an hour.

Archbishop Soderblom, Nobel Prize Winner, Dies at Upsala, Sweden

Upsala, Sweden, July 13.—(UP)—
Archbishop Nathan Soderblom, 65, Nobel prize winner last year and pro-chancellor of the University of Upsala since 1914, died yesterday at the Upsala hospital.

HUNGARIAN FLIERS LEAVE ON PROPOSED FLIGHT TO BUDAPEST

Roosevelt Field, L. I., July 13.—
Captain Georges Endres and Captain Alexander Magyar, Hungarian fliers, left here today on a proposed flight to Budapest.

They had been waiting for favorable weather for more than two weeks. They expect to land at Harbor Grace, N. F., on the first stop.

New York, July 13.—The Radio Marine Corporation announced today that their Chatham, Mass., station received a message from the airplane Justice for Hungary, in which the Hungarian fliers, Endres and Magyar, are attempting a flight to Budapest, saying that at 2:15 P. M. EDT, the plane was over Eastport, Me.

Robbins, Jones
ARE RETRACING
THEIR ROUTE

LEAVE FAIRBANKS AND ARE FLYING TODAY TOWARD SEATTLE

FAILED LAST WEEK IN AT-TEMPTED NONSTOP TO
TOKYO, JAPAN

Fairbanks, Alaska, July 13.—(UP)— Reginald Robbins and Harold S. Jones were flying today toward Seattle, Wash., retracing the route they traveled northward when they failed last week in an attempted nonstop flight from the United States to Tokyo, Japan.

Determined to make another attempt to be the first to fly from Seattle to Tokyo in an airplane, Robbins and Jones left their refueling plane here when they took off last night on the return trip.

The refueler, piloted by Jim Mattern and Nick Greener, will remain here, it was said, until Robbins and Jones make their second attempt.

On the first trial last week, Jones and Robbins kept up to schedule on the first 1,900 miles from Seattle here, then ran into fog and rain and were unable to make a contact with the re-fueler to load their ship with fuel for the remaining 3,200 miles to Tokyo.

GOODYEAR BLIMP
'MAYFLOWER' IS A TOTAL WRECK

TORN FROM ITS MOORINGS AT KANSAS CITY, BLOWN ACROSS POWER WIRES

EXPLOSION WRECKS $60,000 AIR-SHIP, PILOT IS CRITICALLY BURNED

Kansas City, July 13.—(UP)—The silver Goodyear blimp, "Mayflower," was a total wreck today after being torn from its moorings and blown across high tension wires at Municipal airport here.

Its pilot, C. E. Brannigan of Akron, Ohio, was in a hospital, critically burned.

The explosion which wrecked the $60,000 airship occurred after the blimp had been forced to land last night because of a sudden windstorm.
The big bag was making a flight around the city and the regular ground crew was not at work. A volunteer crew tied the blimp to its moorings, but shortly afterward a gust of wind tore it loose and carried it across the wires.

An explosion of the gasoline tank showered the bag with sparks and the ship burst into flames.

R. H. Hobensack, Brannigan's co-pilot, first noticed the blimp was loose.
He jumped to the ground and yelled for help. But before anyone could get to the ship it crashed against a hangar. Claude Hendershott, a mechanic, was thrown overboard by the impact. Three of his ribs were broken.

Then the ship struck the high tension wires. Ray Horton, another mechanic, jumped through the flames and landed unhurt. Brannigan, however, was trapped in the cabin and fell with the ship. Hobensack dragged him from the wreckage, but not before he was seriously burned.

The "Mayflower" was on its way back to Akron after an exhibition flight through the west. It flew here Saturday from Dexter, Kansas, and was to go on to Akron today.

Andrew W. Mellon Returns
Home From Italy Next Week

Cap Ferrat, France, July 13.—(UP)— Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury, said today he had decided to return to the United States next week, probably from an Italian port.

Lebrich and Doret, French Fliers, Cruising Over Siberia, in Non-Stop Flight to Tokio

NO MORE WORD SINCE THEY FLEW OVER MOSCOW

UNFAVORABLE WEATHER DUR-ING NIGHT HAS GREATLY IMPROVED

SOVIET AUTHORITIES URGE UT-MOST CO-OPERATION BE GIVEN FLIERS

Moscow, July 13.—(UP)—Two French aviators in their big airplane, Hyphen, were believed cruising rapidly over Siberia today, eastward from Paris toward Tokio, their goal in a daring attempt to break the non-stop distance flight record.

The fliers, Joseph Le Brix and Marcel Doret, were sighted flying high over Moscow at 7:30 P. M. (10:30 A. M.
CST.) yesterday, proceeding northeastward toward Nijni Novgorod.

No further word was received of Le Brix and Doret since they passed over Moscow last evening.

However, no apprehension was felt for them. Unfavorable weather improved during the night. Soviet aviation authorities sent out general instructions that the utmost assistance should be extended in the event of a forced landing.

Their route lay over the hazardous course followed recently by the world fliers, Wiley Post and Harold Gatty, in the Winnie Mae. They expected to reach Tokio in about 60 hours. The distance is about 6,200 miles in a straight line.

Le Brix and Doret, who less than a month ago established a record by flying in a closed circuit for more than 6,500 miles in a little over 70 hours, left Le Bourget airport outside Paris at 4:24 A. M. Paris time (7:42 P. M.
Saturday, CST.) yesterday, in their 650-horsepower Dewoitine monoplane.

They passed over Brussels an hour and a half later, doing a little better than 110 miles an hour. Their speed was expected to increase considerably as the flight progressed and their immense fuel load was lightened. They carried 2,140 gallons of gasoline.

SEEK TO HAVE FALL SERVE PRISON TERM IN SOUTHWEST AREA

Washington, July 13.—(UP)—Filing of motions which will enable Albert B.
Fall, former secretary of interior, to serve a prison sentence for bribery in the southwest instead of Washington, today was postponed until tomorrow.

Frank J. Hogan, counsel for Fall,
United States District Attorney Leo A.
Rover and Justice Jennings Bailey of the District of Columbia supreme court, discussed the matter today in the latter's chambers.

Williams Bay, Wis., July 13.—(UP)— Prof. Edwin B. Frost, the blind astronomer who found mathematical exact-ness in a common cricket, believes on the eve of his 65th birthday that the universe was created by a master mind and developed after a definite plan.

Prof. Frost, whose son, Frederick, described him in an immortal poem
as "Smiling As He Feels His Way," will be 65 tomorrow. Greetings came today from all parts of the world, many from other famous scientists who say that "the blind astronomer of Yerkes observatory" knows as much perhaps about the stars as any man who ever lived.

More than 350 of his friends will honor him with a banquet on the anniversary and to them it is expected he will tell some of his observations after 45 years study of the universe.

Blindness has robbed the professor of his former pleasure of studying his sun and his moon and stars through the world's largest telescope at the observatory here, but his mind has worked on as before.

An example of the systematic way in which his mind works since darkness fell upon him is seen in his observation that if one counts the number of times a cricket chirps in 13 seconds, then adds 42 to this number,
the result will be the exact temperature of the time and place.

Always preferring observational facts to theories, Prof. Frost has spent the days and nights of his life
in constant search for truths about
the universe and the people and things which live upon this one small part that is called the world.

Of him his son wrote:
To see him day by day
His clean, fine face—
His almost silver hair—
Smiling as he feels his way
Through awakening springtime days
He cannot hope to see.

His eager brain,
His search for truth,
His finest hopes,
Care caged and blinded
By the darkness of his eyes,
And yet I see him
Day by day
Smiling with the spring."

Always preferring observational facts to theories, Prof. Frost has spent the days and nights of his life
in constant search for truths about
the universe and the people and
things which live upon this one small
part that is called the world.

Of him his son wrote:
To see him day by day
His clean, fine face—
His almost silver hair—
Smiling as he feels his way
Through awakening springtime days
He cannot hope to see.

His eager brain,
His search for truth,
His finest hopes,
Care caged and blinded
By the darkness of his eyes,
And yet I see him
Day by day
Smiling with the spring."

Glamorous Flights Under Way Throughout World

LAURA INGALLS TO START FLIGHT OVER ATLANTIC

2 FRENCHMEN AFTER PARIS TO TOKIO NON-STOP FLIGHT PRIZE

F. C. CHICHESTER IS ENROUTE FROM AUSTRALIA TO JA- PAN

By United Press
Glamorous flying endeavors were underway today in several sections of the world.
Two Frenchmen, Joseph Le Brix and Marcel Doret, were presumed to be flying high over Siberia in their flight from Paris to Tokio. They passed over Moscow last night, an hour ahead of the schedule they had set for themselves.

At Waynoka, Okla., Laura Ingalls waited for clearing weather before starting for New York from where she will take off on a trans-Atlantic flight attempt.

Meanwhile an army ambulance sped across the country from El Paso, Tex., carrying Private Olaf Nelson of the army who is slowly starving after swallowing two teeth. They are taking him to Washington where efforts will be made to have Dr. Chevalier Jackson of Philadelphia dislodge the teeth.

F. C. Chichester, enroute from Australia to Japan, is expected at Manila shortly after arriving safely at Mati Davav.

Harry Russell of Dearborn, Mich., was in the lead of the Ford trophy flight today as the aviators planned to leave Montgomery, Ala., for Gulfport, Miss., and New Orleans.

Reginald Robbins and Harold S. Jones, whose attempt to make a non-stop refueling flight from Seattle to Tokio was frustrated by bad weather, are enroute to Seattle from Fairbanks, Alaska, hoping to make another start shortly on the trans-Pacific attempt.

Edward Maloney and Seth Yerrington, flying a plane known as the Capitall Carranza after the illustrious Mexican flier who was killed several years ago, were enroute from Roosevelt field to Mexico City on a non-stop flight.

A pilot for the Mexican Aviation company reported today that he had seen an airplane, believed to be the Capitall Carranza in which Seth Yerrington and Edward Maloney were making a non-stop flight from New York to Mexico City, crashed up on the beach about 60 miles south of Brownsville. The pilot said he saw two men on the beach beside the plane, apparently unhurt.

RALPH CAPONE GAINS CONTINUANCE LIQUOR CHARGE CASE

Chicago, July 13.—(U.P.)—Ralph Capone, dapper brother of "Scarface Al," appeared in federal court today with 12 co-defendants and gained a continuance until Sept. 21 on his trial on liquor conspiracy charges.

Capone's legal advisors had no part in obtaining the continuance. Judge John E. Barnes said it was necessary because summer vacations have reduced Chicago's judicial staffs.

The conspiracy charges against the young Capone grew out of his operation of several night clubs, in which the government charges the prohibition law was violated.

EXPECT TO SETTLE 200 HIGHWAY WORKERS' STRIKE

St. Paul, Minn., July 13.—(U.P.)—Amicable settlement of a strike by 200 highway workers near Cook was expected today, Charles M. Babcock, state highway commissioner, announced.

Representatives at the scene of the controversy reported that they expected to get an assurance from the contractor that the striking workers will be paid 45 cents an hour, minimum wage set by Governor Floyd B. Olson.

The highway workers who are clearing land for highway No. 11 said they were hired on an acreage basis and their pay amounted to a lower rate than the prescribed 45 cents an hour.

Archbishop Soderblom, Nobel Prize Winner, Dies at Upsala, Sweden

Upsala, Sweden, July 13.—(U.P.)—Archbishop Nathan Soderblom, 65, Nobel prize winner last year and pro-chancellor of the University of Upsala since 1914, died yesterday at the Upsala hospital.

HUNGARIAN FLIERS LEAVE ON PROPOSED FLIGHT TO BUDAPEST

Roosevelt Field, L. I., July 13.—Captain Georges Endres and Captain Alexander Magyar, Hungarian fliers, left here today on a proposed flight to Budapest.

They had been waiting for favorable weather for more than two weeks. They expect to land at Harbor Grace, N. F., on the first stop.

New York, July 13.—The Radio Marine Corporation announced today that their Chatham, Mass., station received a message from the airplane Justice for Hungary, in which the Hungarian fliers, Endres and Magyar, are attempting a flight to Budapest, saying that at 2:15 P. M. EDT, the plane was over Eastport, Me.

ROBBINS, JONES ARE RETRACING THEIR ROUTE

LEAVE FAIRBANKS AND ARE FLYING TODAY TOWARD SEATTLE

FAILED LAST WEEK IN AT- TEMPTED NONSTOP TO TOKYO, JAPAN

Fairbanks, Alaska, July 13.—(U.P.)—Reginald Robbins and Harold S. Jones were flying today toward Seattle, Wash., retracing the route they traveled northward when they failed last week in an attempted nonstop flight from the United States to Tokyo, Japan.

Determined to make another attempt to be the first to fly from Seattle to Tokyo in an airplane, Robbins and Jones left their refueling plane here when they took off last night on the return trip.

The refueler, piloted by Jim Mattern, and Nick Greener, will remain here, it was said, until Robbins and Jones make their second attempt.

On the first trial last week, Jones and Robbins kept up to schedule on the first 1,900 miles from Seattle here, then ran into fog and rain and were unable to make a contact with the refueler to load their ship with fuel for the remaining 3,200 miles to Tokyo.

GOODYEAR BLIMP 'MAYFLOWER' IS A TOTAL WRECK

TORN FROM ITS MOORINGS AT KANSAS CITY, BLOWN ACROSS POWER WIRES

EXPLOSION WRECKS $60,000 AIR- SHIP, PILOT IS CRITICALLY BURNED

Kansas City, July 13.—(U.P.)—The silver Goodyear blimp, "Mayflower," was a total wreck today after being torn from its moorings and blown across high tension wires at Municipal airport here.

Its pilot, C. E. Brannigan of Akron, Ohio, was in a hospital, critically burned.

The explosion which wrecked the $60,000 airship occurred after the blimp had been forced to land last night because of a sudden windstorm. The big bag was making a flight around the city and the regular ground crew was not at work. A volunteer crew tied the blimp to its moorings, but shortly afterward a gust of wind tore it loose and carried it across the wires.

An explosion of the gasoline tank showered the bag with sparks and the ship burst into flames.

R. H. Hobensack, Brannigan's co-pilot, first noticed the blimp was loose. He jumped to the ground and yelled for help. But before anyone could get to the ship it crashed against a hangar. Claude Hendershod, a mechanic, was thrown overboard by the impact. Three of his ribs were broken. Then the ship struck the high tension wires. Ray Horton, another mechanic, jumped through the flames and landed unhurt. Brannigan, however, was trapped in the cabin and fell with the ship. Hobensack dragged him from the wreckage, but not before he was seriously burned.

The "Mayflower" was on its way back to Akron after an exhibition flight through the west. It flew here Saturday from Dexter, Kansas, and was to go on to Akron today.

Andrew W. Mellon Returns Home From Italy Next Week

Cap Ferrat, France, July 13.—(U.P.)—Andrew W. Mellon, secretary of the treasury, said today he had decided to return to the United States next week, probably from an Italian port.

Lebrix and Doret, French Fliers, Cruising Over Siberia, in Non-Stop Flight to Tokio

NO MORE WORD SINCE THEY FLEW OVER MOSCOW

UNFAVORABLE WEATHER DUR- ING NIGHT HAS GREATLY IMPROVED

SOVIET AUTHORITIES URGE UT- MOST CO-OPERATION BE GIVEN FLIERS

Moscow, July 13.—(U.P.)—Two French aviators in their big airplane, Hyphen, were believed cruising rapidly over Siberia today, eastward from Paris toward Tokio, their goal in a daring attempt to break the non-stop distance flight record.

The fliers, Joseph Le Brix and Marcel Doret, were sighted flying high over Moscow at 7:30 P. M. (10:30 A. M. CST.) yesterday, proceeding northeastward toward Nijninovgorod.

No further word was received of Le Brix and Doret since they passed over Moscow last evening.

However, no apprehension was felt for them. Unfavorable weather improved during the night. Soviet aviation authorities sent out general instructions that the utmost assistance should be extended in the event of a forced landing.

Their route lay over the hazardous course followed recently by the world fliers, Wiley Post and Harold Gatty, in the Winnie Mae. They expected to reach Tokio in about 60 hours. The distance is about 6,200 miles in a straight line.

Le Brix and Doret, who less than a month ago established a record by flying in a closed circuit for more than 6,500 miles in a little over 70 hours, left Le Bourget airport outside Paris at 4:24 A. M. Paris time (7:42 P. M. Saturday, CST.) yesterday, in their 650-horsepower Dewoitine monoplane.

They passed over Brussels an hour and a half later, doing a little better than 110 miles an hour. Their speed was expected to increase considerably as the flight progressed and their immense fuel load was lightened. They carried 2,140 gallons of gasoline.

Airplane Wreck Death Toll Now Numbers 3

Harrisonville, Mo., July 13.—(U.P.)—Irwin Vrooman, Kansas City pilot, died today, bringing to three the death toll of an airplane wreck yesterday.

Ersbul Thomas, 24, of Harrisonville, and George Colburn, 17, of Manhattan, Kas., were burned to death when the ship in which they were riding crashed into a tree and caught fire. Vrooman, the pilot, was thrown clear and fatally wounded.

The crash occurred just after the plane left the ground from a clover field Vrooman had been using for landing and taking off.

SEEK TO HAVE FALL SERVE PRISON TERM IN SOUTHWEST AREA

Washington, July 13.—(U.P.)—Filing of motions which will enable Albert B. Fall, former secretary of interior, to serve a prison sentence for bribery in the southwest instead of Washington, today was postponed until tomorrow.

Frank J. Hogan, counsel for Fall, United States District Attorney Leo A. Rover and Justice Jennings Bailey of the District of Columbia supreme court, discussed the matter today in the latter's chambers.

WEEK END MISHAPS CLAIM HALF DOZEN LIVES IN STATE

SIX KILLED IN AUTOMOBILE CRASHES, THREE DROWN IN BIG TURTLE LAKE

CAR OF MINNEAPOLIS CLUB WO- MAN FORCED OFF HIGHWAY NEAR ROYALTON

Minneapolis, July 13.—(U.P.)—Week-end accidents claimed at least a half dozen lives in Minnesota, a United Press survey today revealed.

Six were killed in automobile crashes and three persons were drowned in Big Turtle Lake in the northern part of the state when their rowboat overturned.

The automobile fatalities included: Mrs. Totten P. Heffelfinger, Minneapolis, club woman, whose automobile was forced off the highway near Royalton, Minn.

Mrs. Hattie Shanbarker, Beloit, Wis., who died in General hospital from severe injuries received when her car was struck by another.

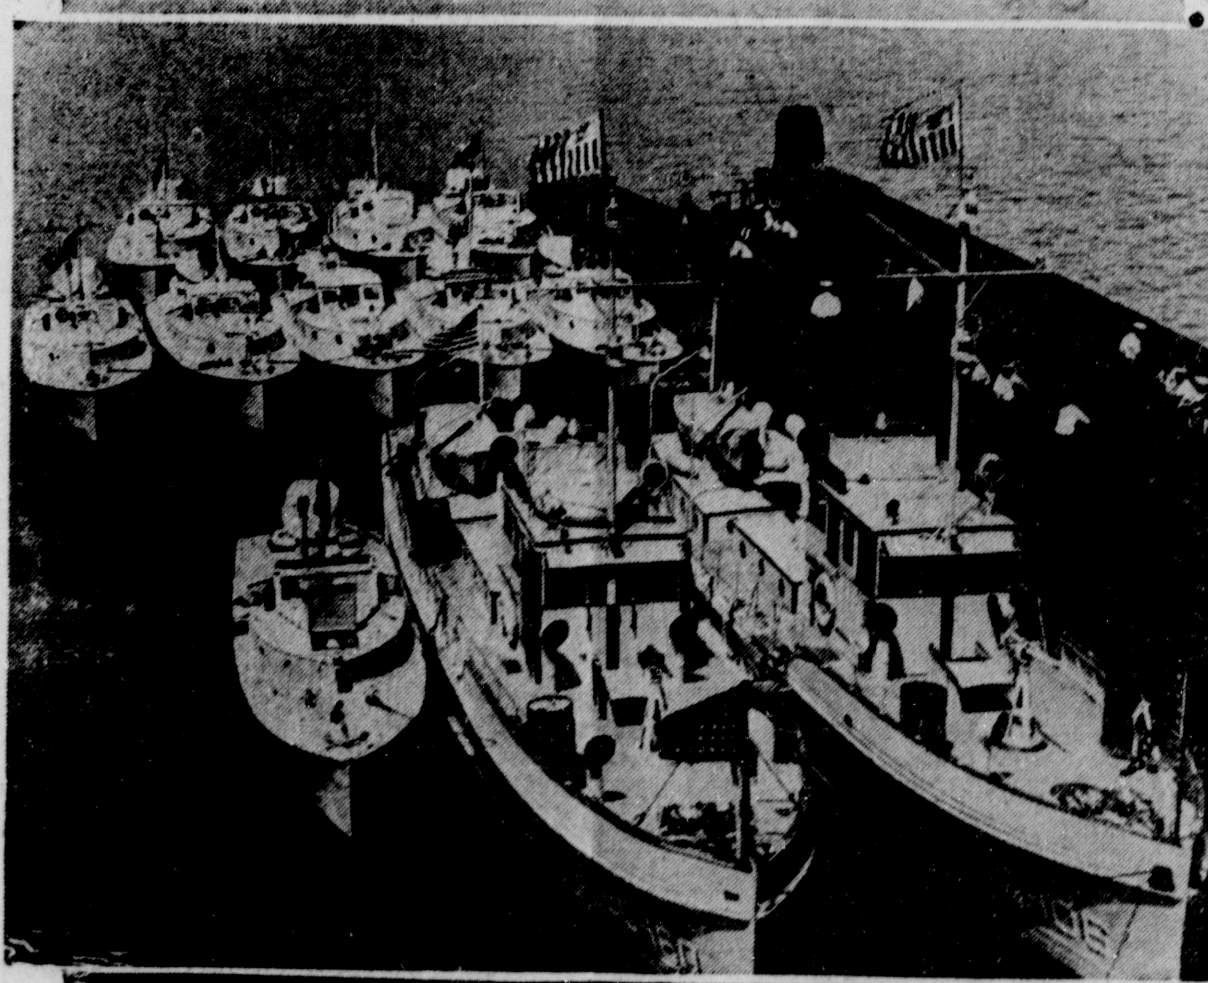

William Gailbraith, Marshall, whose truck overturned near Balaton.

The drowning victims included: Arnold Meyer, Duluth; Martin Tupner and S. Sherman, both of Marcel, Minn.

Mrs. Heffelfinger, who was a junior league worker, was riding with her husband, treasurer of the Van Dusen Harrington company and director of the First National Bank of Minneapolis. They were en route back to Minneapolis after spending the week end at Gull Lake, near Brainerd. As Heffelfinger swung out to pass another car, the driver of the other automobile cut in toward the left forcing the Heffelfinger car into the ditch. Mrs. Heffelfinger was dead when she arrived at a Royalton physician's office.

Mrs. Lucy Hart, Beloit, who was riding with Mrs. Shanbarker, was seriously injured, receiving a fractured leg and possible internal injuries in the accident. Mrs. Mary Knoll, Chicago, was the other driver. She was not injured.

Trouble for the Rum Runner

A dozen of Uncle Sam's rum chasing craft paused in Chicago on a journey from Buffalo to New Orleans. The seamen aboard are en route to Galveston, Texas, there to ply the waters of the Gulf of Mexico and cut down rum-running activities off the gulf coast. A crew of sixty manned the fleet of two radio-equipped seventy-five-footers and ten thirty-eight-footers.

GERMAN PRESSING NEED OF CASH IS SHOWN TO FRANCE

GERMAN AMBASSADOR, VON HOESCH, IN CONFERENCE AT PARIS

AT BASLE THE INTERNATIONAL BANKERS PONDER ON POS- SIBLE RELIEF

By RALPH HEINZEN
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Paris, July 13.—(U.P.)—Germany's pressing need of immediate financial aid was presented again to the French government through the German ambassador, Leopold Von Hoesch, today.

Von Hoesch, who appealed to Premier Pierre Laval last night, conferred with Aristide Briand, foreign minister, before lunch today, while Laval conferred with Finance Minister P. E. Flaudin.

The United Press learned that Germany is making two major requests.

1. An immediate loan.
2. That the French agree to abandon their demand that Germany pay the unconditional annuity under the Young plan to the Basle Bank on Wednesday, when it is due.

The French attitude on both questions remained unchanged, as far as could be learned, although Premier Laval appeared impressed with the critical nature of Germany's financial distress.

France insists before a loan can be granted with French collaboration, the political guarantees demanded must be met; and secondly, that Germany pay the unconditional annuity to the Basle Bank as a mere formality, the money to be returned immediately as new credits are arranged under the Hoover plan.

Germany claims that payment of 660,000,000 marks at this time would aggravate the crisis, especially since the Hoover plan is not yet generally adopted. The French insist that payment is necessary to maintain continuity of the Young plan—a feature of these negotiations which they have insisted on as fundamental.

GERMAN BANKS ACT TO HALT WITHDRAWALS

By FREDERICK KUH
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Berlin, July 13.—(U.P.)—Berlin's banks acted today to halt heavy withdrawals and to relieve Germany's critical financial situation.

Directors of all the Berlin banks met and agreed among themselves to limit temporarily payment of deposits, effective immediately. This was designed to stop the constant drains on local banks at a time when the cabinet was meeting in urgent session, following closing of the big Danat bank.

The government issued an emergency decree regarding the closing of Danat bank, accompanied by a proclamation demanding that the people keep their nerve, assuring them that the government action was intended to save their deposits, although the government would not guarantee the bank's capital.

The decree puts into effect the government's decision, reached at yesterday's cabinet meeting, to guarantee the deposits in the Danat bank. Germany viewed the day as critical in its growing financial stress. "Blauer Montag"—Blue Monday, and the thirteenth—found the cabinet sitting worried, while at Basle international bankers pondered on possible relief for the nation.

A single ray of hope penetrated the pessimistic fog of the dark Monday—word from Washington that while the U. S. government was keeping aloof from loan negotiations, the federal reserve board undoubtedly would be agreeable to joining the bank of international settlements or other international finance groups in a loan move of large proportions.

The limitations agreed upon today were for withdrawals of 100 marks on deposits of 500 marks; 10 per cent on deposits of 5,000 marks; and five per cent on deposits above 5,000 marks, with a maximum for any withdrawal, 1,000 marks.

Prior to the directors' meetings, the big banks had reflected the nervousness engendered by the closing of the Danat. Some were already allowing only partial withdrawals. A few banks including the Commerz Privat bank permitted only 10 per cent withdrawals, though the Deutsche Diskonto and Dresdener and Dresdener banks allowed full withdrawals. Customers at branches were numerous.

The cabinet reconvened in urgent session at 10:30 a. m., the government sitting almost constantly in a desperate effort to stave off financial ruin.

Problems growing out of the failure of the Darmstедter Und National bank—or Danat bank as it is known—were considered, as all Germany wondered whether the bank's closure today was the beginning or end of the country's increasing financial woes.

Dr. Hans Luther, head of the Reichsbank, left by airplane from Tempelhof airport, outside Berlin, for Basle, Switzerland, where he will seek financial aid from the international bank.

A sensational communique announced the closing of the "Danat bank," as the institution is known, after a wor-

TESTING A MOTOR OIL 10 DAYS, DRIVING CAR IN THE BROILING SUN

Rosamond, Calif., July 13.—(U.P.)—Joe Nikrent, former racing driver who is now an official of the National Automobile Association and International Aeronautical Federation, is taking a "vacation" by driving an automobile round and round the dry bed of Rosamond Lake under a broiling sun which sends the temperature daily to about 110 degrees.

Nikrent has a contract to run the car at a speed of 50 miles an hour, ten miles a day, for ten days, in the blistering sun, to test a motor oil.

He insists it's fun, and declares he'll be sorry when his vacation is over and he has to go back to "work."

3 PERSONS DEAD AS RESULT OF JEALOUS SHOOTING

KILLER DRIVES AROUND COUN- TRY WITH BODY OF ONE OF VICTIMS

TRAGEDY AT BIRMINGHAM, ALA., WITH OSCAR DEARMOND, CENTRAL FIGURE

Birmingham, Ala., July 13.—(U.P.)—Three persons were dead today as the result of a jealous shooting in which the killed drove around the country with the body of one of his victims, a former sweetheart, before killing himself.

Oscar Dearmond, a coal dealer, went to Adamsville, near here, where his former sweetheart, Mrs. Nellie Lowe, 35, and Arnold Pluckett, 20, had an ice cream plant.

According to police Dearmond emptied a pistol into Pluckett's body. Then he dragged Mrs. Lowe from the store in which she had sought refuge, threw her to the ground, and emptied his pistol into her prostrate form.

Dearmond then placed the dead woman's body in his automobile, police said, and started a mad ride that ended up at the undertaker's, where he had phoned his mother to meet him. As the car drove up, he fired a bullet into his brain.

St. Paul, Minn., July 13.—(U.P.)—Gov. Floyd B. Olson was expected to take definite action on four appointments late today when he returns from northern Minnesota where he spent the week-end.

Delayed on his return by motor trouble, the governor was unable to attend meetings of the tax board and the state pardon board. A vacancy in the state conservation commission caused by the refusal of Parker Anderson, Minneapolis, to serve, will be filled and the appointment of the state industrial commissioner was expected today.

The governor is expected to issue an order declaring three positions on the state office building commission vacant although Senator Gustaf Widell, Mankato; Representative R. W. Hitchcock, Hibbing, and former Senator Sumner T. McKnight, Minneapolis, have refused to resign.

Chief Clerk C. C. Kyle states to the Dispatch that the shops are in need of 100 more able bodied men. He says they can get many boys and are hiring all that come along, but that they can not get as many men as they need. They want to hire 100 more able bodied men. The tie plant is said also to be hampered by inability to get men to do the work of construction.

At the quarterly conference Tuesday evening Rev. H. W. Knowles announced his intention to resign the pastorate at the end of the conference year. This comes as a surprise to the people here and many of them are exceedingly sorry to see him leave. The best wishes of a host of friends go with him.

A movement is on foot to have the cement walk on Front street constructed in front of all lots on the south side of Front street between Broadway and Tenth streets.

It is possible that two blocks on Broadway between Kingwood and Ivy streets may be macadamized this season. There is a movement on foot between the property owners to petition the council to have this work done at once. There are also rumors of other improvements to be made along this street in way of remodeling dwellings and erecting others that will make the street still more attractive. If the work is done it will probably be with a 40 foot roadway, which will give a wide strip on each side, which will be graded and seeded.

Mrs. M. J. Reilly left this morning for Saratoga Springs, N. Y., to attend the national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians. Mrs. Reilly is vice president of the Ladies' Auxiliary order of the state and with three other officers will represent Minnesota at the convention.

VISITORS' DAY AT CAMP RIPLEY

COMPANY F, MOORHEAD, IS VICTORIOUS IN FIELD MEET EVENTS

Before a crowd of 7,500 the 206th infantry regiment of the national guard at Camp Ripley conducted a visitors day program Sunday.

Company F, Moorhead, was victorious in the field meet events. A concert was presented in honor of 4,000 visitors who ate mess with the regiment.

The program closed with an escort of the colors and parade before a reviewing stand. Adjutant General A. E. Walsh, Colonel F. G. Stutz, regimental commander, Lieutenant Colonel J. E. Nelson and Congressman Harold Knutson were in the reviewing stand.

SOLDIER SWALLOWS 2 FALSE TEETH

ARMY AMBULANCE PLANE TAKES PRIVATE OLAF NELSON TO WASHINGTON HOSPITAL

Post Field, Fort Sill, Okla., July 13.—(AP)—The army ambulance plane carrying Private Olaf Nelson to Walter Reid hospital Washington where an attempt will be made to extract two false teeth the Fort Bliss soldier swallowed left here today.

The ambulance plane, piloted by Lieut. E. Irwin and carrying Maj. Daniel Franklin and Sgt. D. R. Kass of the medical corps, who attended the patient, landed here shortly after 10 p. m., last night. Major Franklin said Private Nelson was resting "easily" when the plane took-off from the army airport at 3:05 a. m.

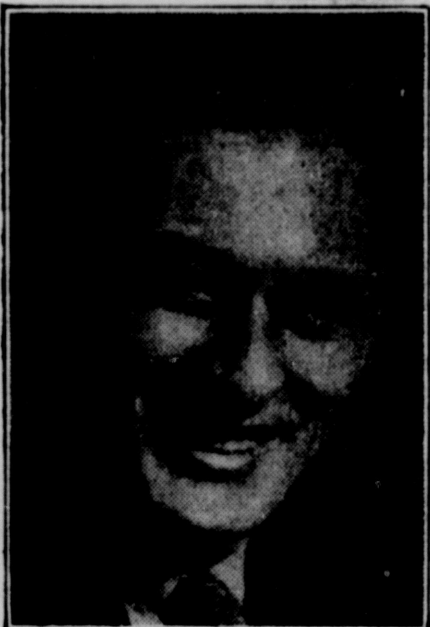

It was a desperate dash to save the soldier's life, after repeated attempts at the William Beaumont army hospital, here, to remove the teeth had failed.

In the cabin of the plane, beside the gasping soldier, was Maj. Daniel Franklin, of William Beaumont hospital, who ordered the flight.

Ahead of them, surgeons at the Walter Reid hospital in the nation's capital were warned to be in readiness to perform the delicate operation necessary to save the soldier's life.

Nelson swallowed the two teeth—a bridge at breakfast Saturday, and they lodged half way down his throat, one end jammed beneath a bone. A local surgeon, Dr. W. E. Vandever, failed in attempts to sever the wire which held the teeth together and remove them separately.

"Only one man in the country—Dr. Chavalier Jackson, of Philadelphia—can save Nelson's life," Maj. Franklin asserted, in ordering the plane.

The above is a picture of "Christy" Obrecht who will open a week's engagement in Brainerd tonight in a new beautiful tent with the Christy Obrecht Co. located at the corner of Oak and 6th street. The opening play tonight will be "Poor Relation" a new modern comedy drama in three acts. Ladies will be admitted free tonight only when accompanied with one paid adult ticket. The prices are popular.

Before a crowd of 7,500 the 206th infantry regiment of the national guard at Camp Ripley conducted a visitors day program Sunday.

Company F, Moorhead, was victorious in the field meet events. A concert was presented in honor of 4,000 visitors who ate mess with the regiment.

The program closed with an escort of the colors and parade before a reviewing stand. Adjutant General A. E. Walsh, Colonel F. G. Stutz, regimental commander, Lieutenant Colonel J. E. Nelson and Congressman Harold Knutson were in the reviewing stand.

ARMY AMBULANCE PLANE TAKES PRIVATE OLAF NELSON TO WASHINGTON HOSPITAL

Post Field, Fort Sill, Okla., July 13. (U.P.)—The army ambulance plane carrying Private Olaf Nelson to Walter Reid hospital Washington where an attempt will be made to extract two false teeth the Fort Bliss soldier swallowed left here today.

The ambulance plane, piloted by Lieut. E. Irwin and carrying Maj. Daniel Franklin and Sgt. D. R. Kass of the medical corps, who attended the patient, landed here shortly after 10 p. m., last night. Major Franklin said Private Nelson was resting "easily" when the plane took off from the army airport at 3:05 a. m.

It was a desperate dash to save the soldier's life, after repeated attempts at the William Beaumont army hospital, here, to remove the teeth had failed.

In the cabin of the plane, beside the gasping soldier, was Maj. Daniel Franklin, of William Beaumont hospital, who ordered the flight.

Ahead of them, surgeons at the Walter Reid hospital in the nation's capital were warned to be in readiness to perform the delicate operation necessary to save the soldier's life.

Nelson swallowed the two teeth—a bridge at breakfast Saturday, and they lodged half way down his throat, one end jammed beneath a bone. A local surgeon, Dr. W. E. Vandever, failed in attempts to sever the wire which held the teeth together and remove them separately.

"Only one man in the country—Dr. Chavalier Jackson, of Philadelphia—can save Nelson's life," Maj. Franklin asserted, in ordering the plane.

The above is a picture of "Christy" Obrecht who will open a week's engagement in Brainerd tonight in a new beautiful tent with the Christy Obrecht Co. located at the corner of Oak and 6th street. The opening play tonight will be "Poor Relation" a new modern comedy drama in three acts. Ladies will be admitted free tonight only when accompanied with one paid adult ticket. The prices are popular.

Governor To Be Commended

GOVERNOR FLOYD B. OLSON is to be commended for his interest in state highway construction work. He is at all times upholding the minimum wages set for state work. It follows the statements he made at the Farm Bureau annual picnic at Lum Park, Brainerd.

Recently a sub-contractor was found ignoring the minimum wage schedule required by the highway department. A strike was called by the farmers engaged in clearing land for a new road. In taking up the case to see that justice is done the farmers, Governor Olson said that he and the highway department would see that the code shall apply to sub-contractors as well as contractors.

Few persons in the state appreciate fully the meaning of the new minimum wage schedule in force on highway construction work, says the St. Cloud Times. A year ago the conditions in the construction camps of the state were simply unbelievable. An investigation was made by the Industrial Commission and the findings were published in the Fifth Biennial report of the commission. Contractors paid as low as 25 cents per hour and very few paid a wage comparable to that which is in force under the wage schedule ordered put in force by Governor Olson about two months ago.

It was to remedy this condition that Governor Olson ordered Highway Commissioner Babcock to require a minimum wage provision in all future contracts on highway work. The minimum wage to be observed was 45 cents per hour and contractors were limited to $1.00 per day in their charge for board and lodging. There were also several other conditions as to sanitation and deductions from wages in the mandate of the governor.

There has been some complaint made about highway inspectors being compelled to work too long hours. In many instances it is charged these inspectors work upwards of 12 hours per day. No doubt this matter will be brought to the attention of Mr. Babcock and he will put a stop to any practices of this sort in his department.

Wise Men Make Money in Panics

THE majority of America's fortunes were founded in times exactly like these, says Capper's Weekly. Rockefeller told Sen. Capper that he built up Standard Oil by buying properties during times of panic, when others wanted to stand from under.

Andrew Carnegie's early partners forsook him one by one whenever the steel industry became acutely unprofitable—but little Andy did not run away.

Henry Clay Frick, then a young man, fearlessly borrowed money and bought square miles of coke lands during the terrific panic of 1873 and in a few years his profits exceeded a million dollars a year.

Not only did Woolworth's first store fail, but three out of the first five had to be abandoned. Similar instances where the exercise of unflinching courage led to fame and fortune.

It has been said that the difference between a thoroughbred horse and a scrub is that a scrub goes until it can't go another mile, whereas the thoroughbred goes until it can't go another mile—then goes that other mile.

America never yet has had a panic, never yet has had a spell of depression from which it did not arise stronger and more prosperous than before. America will emerge from this time of stress stronger and more prosperous than before. Don't doubt that. The weakest thing in America today is not the stock market, is not wheat, is not cotton, is not sugar, is not copper, is not rubber; the weakest thing in America today is our state of mind.

The rich rewards of tomorrow will come, not to those who are now wilting, not to those who are showing the white feather, but to those who have faith and vision and confidence enough to buck the tide, to grit their teeth and forge unswervingly ahead.

Blow-Outs Are Dangerous

NEWSPAPER editors, constantly alive to their customers—the great American public—are becoming more and more alarmed at the state of the automobile tires on which said public is riding, between blow-outs.

Tires on motor vehicles are of far more importance than the average motorist realizes. This is the time of the year when tires are apt to be at their worst and to be the most dangerous.

Exploding balloon tires on a fast touring car inevitably tend to wreck the car and injure or kill the occupants. When the tire goes it is difficult to steer the car and it swings to the ditch or upsets on the road. A blow-out in traffic brings added danger to any car in the swerving path of the stricken automobile.

A worn tire is a real danger. The only solution is to drive slowly if you wish to use up your old tires. The safer plan is to discard the worn-out tire before it blows up in your face.

THE Minnesota Department of the American Legion now numbers over 30,000 members, according to officials. Starting this year's membership campaign with a quota of 27,700 Minnesota Legionnaires swelled their ranks to 28,000 by March, leading all other states in increase. Since that time about 2,000 more have joined.

GULL LAKE highway yesterday evening had traffic marred by several cars whose drivers persisted in driving in the center and crowding cars near the ditch line. A center traffic line should be painted in at the earliest opportunity. A yellow mark is not as visible as an orange stripe.

RESORT and private cottages and hotels are filling at the lakes. Some have estimated that at the height of the tourist season the Brainerd Lake Region carries a population of 50,000.

SATURDAY night's hail, fortunately, did not do much damage. It was largely local. Only a few drops of rain and no hail fell south of town in the Daggett Brook country.

MADAME MARIE CURIE ADDS DAUGHTER TO HER INVESTIGATING STAFF

Paris, July 13—(UP)—Madame Marie Curie, joint discoverer of radium entered into a new scientific partnership today in her attempt to wrest new secrets from nature. She took into her laboratory as assistant one of her daughters, Irene Curie.

When her husband was run over and killed in a Paris street more than 20 years ago, Madame Curie continued her work alone, in her tiny room at the radium institute here, to which sanctuary she has now admitted her daughter. The younger woman has studied science for years and, although not so brilliant as her mother, has evoked much interest by various scientific papers.

Since her success with her husband in producing radium and polonium from pitch blende, the eminent woman scientist has spent years in seeking new wonders from the substance. At intervals she has carried out other experiments, notably exploring the possibilities of television which she believes will become an every-day accessory of life in the not too distant future.

In their laboratory, mother and her daughter work patiently for weeks on end, breaking their labors only to cook food in the tiny kitchen attached or to receive visits from other scientists.

Sweetest of All

The great New York reception, the presidential greeting in Washington, the cheers of townsfolk down in Chickasha, Okla., were fine all right, yet no words of praise were sweeter to Wiley Post (center), of the immortal round-world flight team of Gatty and Post, than those accorded by his proud dad and mother, with whom he is shown.

Dave Ordway finds love and adventure when his plane crashes in the orange groves owned by beautiful Joan Marbury. He loves Joan but her reserve is impenetrable. Her cousin, Sally, however, is obviously in love with Dave. Gerry Flemming, Talbot Henderson and Barbara Holworthy, Dave's former fiancée, visit him. Barbara is hostile toward the girls. Under cover of darkness, Dave leaves, with Gerry and Talbot, to even a score against Mueller, neighboring plantation owner, who, in reality, is Snatch Cazzoni, a bootlegger. Mueller tried to force his attentions upon Joan and also robbed Dave and destroyed his plane. Planning to steal Mueller's plane to replace Dave's, the boys come upon a hangar containing four planes, and also discover a liquor-cutting plant. Figures loom in the darkness. Dave grapples with the nearest one. It is Joan. Unable to resist, they kiss. Heedless of danger, the girls had followed but are ordered back. On the way, Barbara, in revenge, pretends to hear Dave calling. Joan goes back in search of him accompanied only by her colored mammy.

CHAPTER XXV.

"MISS JOAN, what is you?" Hannah's voice held a sharp note of hysteria. "Dey's men comin' in de back doah!"

Joan knew a moment of wild panic. Where was Dave? Surely he would not have called her and then hurried away! She heard the scuffling of feet in the rear of the house.

She grasped the moist hand of the aged negro and began to tow her hurriedly toward the front door. A harsh voice from the darkness ahead struck her like a slap in the face.

"C'mon, you guys. If they're in here, we'll smoke 'em out."

No Retreat.

She stopped abruptly, her heart pounding in her ears. She was cut off, front and rear. There was a patio, she remembered, which opened off the dining room, but she dared not search for it. There had been footsteps in that direction. The entire house reverberated with noise. Shouts from the kitchen rolled through the empty rooms like the strident murmur of an angry mob. She must find a hiding place, instantly. Dark and without any of the familiar furniture, this house was now alien, unfriendly. She must remember what it had looked like when Anne and Ted had lived here. She had been in Anne's room many, many times. A wide, cool chamber, high-ceilinged after the Spanish fashion. Now she remembered. Of course, the great stairway was just behind her, to the right. She hurried through the darkness, impatient of Hannah's reluctant weight dragging at her.

"Please hurry, Hannah!" she whispered.

Hannah started convulsively. Her hand twitched in Joan's. "Doan' have to tell me dat, Miss Joan," she panted. "Dey's a mah feet right dis minit!"

The forged iron banisters were familiar to Joan's hand. There had been an ancient tapestry of dull red and gold at the top of the stairs. Only the darkness and the noise from below were strange. But Anne, so smiling and hospitable, would not be waiting in her loosened treads. The frightened girl glanced wildly around the room. The only remaining hiding place was Anne's closet, yawning pitch-black in the dark corner. Joan's flesh crawled at the thought of entering it. There might be snakes and scorpions there. But she remembered the way Mueller's eyes gloated at her. Hannah whimpered like a baby as Joan dragged her toward the open door.

Trapped.

The absolute blackness was worse than Joan had expected. When the door had been closed, the sides of the narrow space seemed to close in on them like a collapsible box. Hannah's fleshy shoulder pressed against the girl's body. The negroess was trembling as if with a chill. "Miss Joan," she chattered, "I smell snakes here. Let's us go 'way."

The door burst open and the blinding glare of a flashlight blazed into the cell-like closet.

In the roof and that rubbish on the floor! Anne had loved the house so!

"Miss Joan, I've done beat," gasped Hannah. "I've plumb winded, I is, an' you better jes' go 'way and lea' me here to catch mah breath."

"Just a few more steps, Hannah, dear," begged Joan, desperately. "Mr. Dave must be around here somewhere. If he isn't, we'll find a place to hide. Please, Hannah, come on."

Refuge Needed.

They stumbled across the threshold of Anne's room, now a stark, grim cell lighted by the four long windows which had overlooked a garden gay with bright-hued tropic flowers. Once the room had been fragrant with perfumes and cosmetics; now there was only the decaying smell of damp plaster and rotting vegetation. The walls themselves seemed to have undergone a change. Once they had smiled beneath their colorful hangings; now they stared reproachfully at the intruders, as if wishful only for peace and quiet in which to crumble into dust.

Joan shivered, although the air was stifling. She had not realized the room would be like this. She had turned to it as a refuge, but it was as unfriendly as the men from whom she was trying to escape. Where was Dave? She

"Sh!" whispered Joan, fighting for self-control. "There's something outside."

"I'd as soon be daid as here," moaned Hannah, rocking her huge body back and forth. Joan fumbled around and placed her slender hand across Hannah's mouth. The slithering footsteps on the other side of the cypress door had died away. The silence was as terrifying as the sound had been a moment before. Joan fought down an insane desire to batter at the door with her fists and to scream and scream until her lungs burst. Hannah began to sob. In her desire to soothe the other, Joan conquered herself. She placed her arm around Hannah's shaking shoulders and whispered meaningless words and phrases, as one comforts a child who has suddenly awakened from a nightmare.

And then the door burst open. The blinding glare of a flashlight blazed into the cell-like closet. Hannah, her eyes rolling wildly, her face gray and wretched, buried her head in her arms and sank to her knees. Joan involuntarily pushed at the light with her outstretched hands. Her tousled golden hair glinted under the incandescent rays like a diamond-flecked halo. Her cheeks were drained of their color. Her deep blue eyes were wide with horror.

Governor To Be Commended

GOVERNOR FLOYD B. OLSON is to be commended for his interest in state highway construction work. He is at all times upholding the minimum wages set for state work. It follows the statements he made at the Farm Bureau annual picnic at Lum Park, Brainerd.

Recently a sub-contractor was found ignoring the minimum wage schedule required by the highway department. A strike was called by the farmers engaged in clearing land for a new road. In taking up the case to see that justice is done the farmers, Governor Olson said that he and the highway department would see that the code shall apply to sub-contracts as well as contracts.

Few persons in the state appreciate fully the meaning of the new minimum wage schedule in force on highway construction work, says the St. Cloud Times. A year ago the conditions in the construction camps of the state were simply unbelievable. An investigation was made by the Industrial Commission and the findings were published in the Fifth Biennial report of the commission. Contractors paid as low as 25 cents per hour and very few paid a wage comparable to that which is in force under the wage schedule ordered put in force by Governor Olson about two months ago.

It was to remedy this condition that Governor Olson ordered Highway Commissioner Babcock to require a minimum wage provision in all future contracts on highway work. The minimum wage to be observed was 45 cents per hour and contractors were limited to $1.00 per day in their charge for board and lodging. There were also several other conditions as to sanitation and deductions from wages in the mandate of the governor.

There has been some complaint made about highway inspectors being compelled to work too long hours. In many instances it is charged these inspectors work upwards of 12 hours per day. No doubt this matter will be brought to the attention of Mr. Babcock and he will put a stop to any practices of this sort in his department.

Wise Men Make Money in Panics

THE majority of America's fortunes were founded in times exactly like these, says Capper's Weekly. Rockefeller told Sen. Capper that he built up Standard Oil by buying properties during times of panic, when others wanted to stand from under.

Andrew Carnegie's early partners forsook him one by one whenever the steel industry became acutely unprofitable—but little Andy did not run away.

Henry Clay Frick, then a young man, fearlessly borrowed money and bought square miles of coke lands during the terrific panic of 1873 and in a few years his profits exceeded a million dollars a year.

Not only did Woolworth's first store fail, but three out of the first five had to be abandoned. Similar instances where the exercise of unflinching courage led to fame and fortune.

It has been said that the difference between a thoroughbred horse and a scrub is that a scrub goes until it can't go another mile, whereas the thoroughbred goes until it can't go another mile—then goes that other mile.

America never yet has had a panic, never yet has had a spell of depression from which it did not arise stronger and more prosperous than before. America will emerge from this time of stress stronger and more prosperous than before. Don't doubt that. The weakest thing in America today is not the stock market, is not wheat, is not cotton, is not sugar, is not copper, is not rubber; the weakest thing in America today is our state of mind.

The rich rewards of tomorrow will come, not to those who are now wilting, not to those who are showing the white feather, but to those who have faith and vision and confidence enough to buck the tide, to grit their teeth and forge unswervingly ahead.

Blow-Outs Are Dangerous

NEWSPAPER editors, constantly alive to their customers—the great American public—are becoming more and more alarmed at the state of the automobile tires on which said public is riding, between blow-outs.

Tires on motor vehicles are of far more importance than the average motorist realizes. This is the time of the year when tires are apt to be at their worst and to be the most dangerous.

Exploding balloon tires on a fast touring car inevitably tend to wreck the car and injure or kill the occupants. When the tire goes it is difficult to steer the car and it swings to the ditch or upsets on the road. A blow-out in traffic brings added danger to any car in the swerving path of the stricken automobile.

A worn tire is a real danger. The only solution is to drive slowly if you wish to use up your old tires. The safer plan is to discard the worn-out tire before it blows up in your face.

THE Minnesota Department of the American Legion now numbers over 30,000 members, according to officials. Starting this year's membership campaign with a quota of 27,700 Minnesota Legionnaires swelled their ranks to 28,000 by March, leading all other states in increase. Since that time about 2,000 more have joined.

GULL LAKE highway yesterday evening had traffic marred by several cars whose drivers persisted in driving in the center and crowding cars near the ditch line. A center traffic line should be painted in at the earliest opportunity. A yellow mark is not as visible as an orange stripe.

RESORT and private cottages and hotels are filling at the lakes. Some have estimated that at the height of the tourist season the Brainerd Lake Region carries a population of 50,000.

SATURDAY night's hail, fortunately, did not do much damage. It was largely local. Only a few drops of rain and no hail fell south of town in the Daggett Brook country.

MADAME MARIE CURIE ADDS DAUGHTER TO HER INVESTIGATING STAFF

Paris, July 13.—(UP)—Madame Marie Curie, joint discoverer of radium entered into a new scientific partnership today in her attempt to wrest new secrets from nature. She took into her laboratory as assistant one of her daughters, Irene Curie.

When her husband was run over and killed in a Paris street more than 20 years ago, Madame Curie continued her work alone, in her tiny room at the radium institute here, to which sanctuary she has now admitted her daughter. The younger woman has studied science for years and, although not so brilliant as her mother, has evoked much interest by various scientific papers.

Since her success with her husband in producing radium and polonium from pitch blende, the eminent woman scientist has spent years in seeking new wonders from the substance. At intervals she has carried out other experiments, notable exploring the possibilities of television which she believes will become an every-day accessory of life in the not too distant future.

In their laboratory, mother and her daughter work patiently for weeks on end, breaking their labors only to cook food in the tiny kitchen attached or to receive visits from other scientists.

San Salvador, Salvador, July 13.—(UP)—Congress declared a state of siege in Salvador today on request of the president.

Sweetest of All

The great New York reception, the presidential greeting in Washington, the cheers of townsfolk down in Chickasha, Okla., were fine all right, yet no words of praise were sweeter to Wiley Post (center), of the immortal round-world flight team of Gatty and Post, than those accorded by his proud dad and mother, with whom he is shown.

Dave Ordway finds love and adventure when his plane crashes in the orange groves owned by beautiful Joan Marbury. He loves Joan but her reserve is impenetrable. Her cousin, Sally, however, is obviously in love with Dave. Gerry Flemming, Talbot Henderson and Barbara Holworthy, Dave's former fiancée, visit him. Barbara is hostile toward the girls. Under cover of darkness, Dave leaves, with Gerry and Talbot, to even a score against Mueller, neighboring plantation owner, who, in reality, is Snatch Cazzoni, a bootlegger. Mueller tried to force his attentions upon Joan and also robbed Dave and destroyed his plane. Planning to steal Mueller's plane to replace Dave's, the boys come upon a hangar containing four planes, and also discover a liquor-cutting plant. Figures loom in the darkness. Dave grapples with the nearest one. It is Joan. Unable to resist, they kiss. Fearless of danger, the girls had followed but are ordered back. On the way, Barbara, in revenge, pretends to hear Dave calling Joan. Joan goes back in search of him accompanied only by her colored mammy.

CHAPTER XXV.

"MISS JOAN, what is you?" Hannah's voice held a sharp note of hysteria. "Dey's men comin' in de back doah!"

Joan knew a moment of wild panic. Where was Dave? Surely he would not have called her and then hurried away! She heard the scuffling of feet in the rear of the house.

She grasped the moist hand of the aged negro and began to tow her hurriedly toward the front door. A harsh voice from the darkness ahead struck her like a slap in the face.

No Retreat.

She stopped abruptly, her heart pounding in her ears. She was cut off, front and rear. There was a patio, she remembered, which opened off the dining room, but she dared not search for it. There had been footsteps in that direction. The entire house reverberated with noise. Shouts from the kitchen rolled through the empty rooms like the strident murmur of an angry mob. She must find a hiding place, instantly. Dark and without any of the familiar furniture, this house was now alien, unfriendly. She must remember what it had looked like when Anne and Ted had lived here. She had been in Anne's room many, many times. A wide, cool chamber, high-ceilinged after the Spanish fashion. Now she remembered. Of course, the great stairway was just behind her, to the right. She hurried through the darkness, impatient of Hannah's reluctant weight dragging at her.

"Please hurry, Hannah!" she whispered.

Hannah started convulsively. Her hand twitched in Joan's.

"Doan' have to tell me dat, Miss Joan," she panted. "Dey's a monstrous 'somepin' snappin' at mah feet right dis minnit!"

The forged iron banisters were familiar to Joan's hand. There had been an ancient tapestry of dull red and gold at the top of the stairs. Only the darkness and the noise from below were strange. But Anne, so smiling and hospitable, would not be waiting in her beloved room. Anne and Ted, Joan remembered, were running a little bakery in Miami now, glad to earn sufficient money to clothe, feed and shelter themselves.

A shout reverberated through the hall. If one of those men should use a flashlight, it would be all over. Why did Hannah pull so? There they were around the corner now, hidden for the moment in the upper hall which led from Anne's room to one of the many guest chambers in the rear. Joan tripped on a pile of rubbish and would have pitched headlong to the floor had Hannah's weight not jerked her upright. It was lighter here. Joan glanced up at the ceiling. There was a jagged hole in the roof where the tiles and sheathing had fallen away. The moonlight stared coldly between the beams, which reminded Joan of the bars to a jail window. How Anne would have hated that hole heard the stamping of heavy boots on the floor below. The stairway creaked as someone mounted the loosened treads. The frightened girl glanced wildly around the room. The only remaining hiding place was Anne's closet, yawning pitch-black in the dark corner. Joan's flesh crawled at the thought of entering it. There might be snakes and scorpions there. But she remembered the way Mueller's eyes gloated at her. Hannah whimpered like a baby as Joan dragged her toward the open door.

Trapped.

The absolute blackness was worse than Joan had expected. When the door had been closed, the sides of the narrow space seemed to close in on them like the collapsible box. Hannah's fleshy shoulder pressed against the girl's body. The negro was trembling as if with a chill. "Miss Joan," she chattered, "I smell snakes here. Let's us go 'way."

The door burst open and the blinding glare of a flashlight blazed into the cell-like closet.

in the roof and that rubbish on the floor! Anne had loved the house so!

"Miss Joan, I've done beat," gasped Hannah. "I've plumb winded, I is, an' you better jes' go 'way and lea' me here to catch mah breaf."

"Just a few more steps, Hannah, dear," begged Joan, desperately. "Mr. Dave must be around here somewhere. If he isn't, we'll find a place to hide. Please, Hannah, come on."

Refuge Needed.

They stumbled across the threshold of Anne's room, now a stark, grim cell lighted by the four long windows which had overlooked a garden gay with bright-hued tropic flowers. Once the room had been fragrant with perfumes and cosmetics; now there was only the decaying smell of damp plaster and rotting vegetation. The walls themselves seemed to have undergone a change. Once they had smiled beneath their colorful hangings; now they stared reproachfully at the intruders, as if wishful only for peace and quiet in which to crumble into dust.

Joan shivered, although the air was stifling. She had not realized the room would be like this. She had turned to it as a refuge, but it was as unfriendly as the men from whom she was trying to escape. Where was Dave? She

"Sh!" whispered Joan, fighting for self-control. "There's someone outside."

"I'd as soon be daid as here," moaned Hannah, rocking her huge body back and forth.

Joan fumbled around and placed her slender hand across Hannah's mouth. The slithering footsteps on the other side of the cypress door had died away. The silence was as terrifying as the sounds had been a moment before. Joan fought down an insane desire to batter at the door with her fists and to scream and scream until her lungs burst. Hannah began to sob. In her desire to soothe the other, Joan conquered herself. She placed her arm around Hannah's shaking shoulders and whispered meaningless words and phrases, as one comforts a child who has suddenly awakened from a nightmare.

And then the door burst open. The blinding glare of a flashlight blazed into the cell-like closet. Hannah, her eyes rolling wildly, her face gray and wretched, buried her head in her arms and sank to her knees. Joan involuntarily pushed at the light with her outstretched hands. Her tousled golden hair glinted under the incandescent rays like a diamond-flecked halo. Her cheeks were drained of their color. Her deep blue eyes were wide with horror.

BIG BILL TILDEN WINS PROFESSIONAL TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

ADDS HIS NEW WON CROWN TO ALREADY PONDEROUS GROUP

SCORES 7-5, 6-2 AND 6-1 IN FINAL MATCH WITH VINCENT RICHARDS

RICHARDS SUSTAINS MINOR INJURY IN PLAYING SINGLES FINAL

By L. S. CAMERON
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, July 13.—(U.P.)—Just as though he needed the title to prove himself the world's greatest player, big Bill Tilden set about the National Professional Tennis championship, and won. So now he has won everything.

In the final match against his most earnest and least-loved foe, Vincent Richards, the scores of 7-5, 6-2, 6-1, were fair indications of the match itself.

Seven times United States singles champion, thrice winner at Wimbledon, a Davis cup victor more times than he may care to recall, Tilden's new title, however coveted, is only one of a ponderous collection.

Off the record, however, the Sunday victory at the West Side club, means a lot to Big Bill. Tilden doesn't say so, and won't, but he simply cannot abide the cupid-like Winnie Richards, once his apparent as national amateur king, and now the second man in any professional competition they enter.

Thus it was that Tilden tried too hard in the final match of the tournament. Richards, although exhausted after winning his gruelling doubles semi-final contest of the day before, had his game in perfect working order at the outset. Not so Tilden. Big Bill was erratic in his returns.

Richards took full advantage of lapses and for a few games of the first set it appeared that the contest would be close.

But when Tilden broke through Richards' service in the eighth game, the contest was brought to love and Vinnie was never ahead after that.

Richards sustained a minor injury in playing the singles final. He fell and strained his ankle. The injury made him limp although he tried to conceal it during the final game.

Had the fall occurred earlier there would have been those to smile slyly and intimate that the hurt was only imagination.

Despite the small size of the crowds which attended the first days of the professional tournament, the competition was marked down as a success. Crowds of more than 5,000 watched each of the last two days' play, and supplied money needed to pay Tilden his winner's prize of $1,000 and the $750 runner-up money to Richards.

Richards teamed with Howard C. Kinsey of San Francisco, to win the doubles championship over Tilden and his veteran partner, Francis T. Hunter of New Rochelle. Scores were 7-9, 7-5, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3.

The result pleased the crowd which applauded every good play of the winners and which went so far as to applaud when the other side made a misplay.

TONY CANZONERI FIGHTS CECIL PAYNE AT WRIGLEY FIELD

Los Angeles, July 13.—(U.P.)—The junior welterweight championship of the world will be at stake tonight when Tony Canzoneri, the modest little titleholder, meets Cecil Payne, the best lightweight in the west, in a 10-round bout at Wrigley Field.

Canzoneri, the New Orleans lad, also holds the world's lightweight championship, and is meeting a tough customer in Payne, who hails from Louisville, Ky. Both have agreed to make 135 pounds, although both are legitimate lightweight.

Canzoneri, in fact, has offered Payne a crack at his lightweight title if the challenger defeats him tonight.

Tony was a 10 to 8 favorite today. Earlier odds had been higher but reports that Payne was in excellent condition brought them down.

MORTICIAN CAME FROM DETROIT BY WAIVER ROUTE

NOW DRESSED IN LIVERY OF WORLD-CHAMPION PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

Turns in 2 victories in 2 weeks, both over Boston Red Sox

By LEO H. PETERSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, July 13.—(U.P.)—Waite Hoyt, the merry mortician, has made good with something resembling a bang since Connie Mack obtained him from the Detroit Tigers on waivers and dressed him in the livery of the world-champion Philadelphia Athletics.

Waite, one-time "boy wonder" of the New York Yankees, has been with the Athletics a little more than two weeks and has turned in two victories. Both triumphs were scored over the Boston Red Sox. In his first start, Hoyt allowed the Red Sox eight hits, yesterday he let them down with six.

Having proved to Connie Mack that his strong right arm still packs a punch, Hoyt probably will be sent out against stronger clubs.

The A's took both ends of a double-header yesterday, 7 to 2, and 6 to 2. The double victory, coupled with New York's 10 to 4 defeat of Washington increased the A's league leadership to six full games.

Five errors played a big part in Washington's downfall. Herbie Pennock, who is in the midst of a comeback, pitched the route for New York. The victory advanced the Yankees to within four games of the second place Washingtons.

Wes Ferrell pitched the Cleveland Indians to a 10 to 4 victory over the Chicago White Sox in the first game of a double-header, but the White Sox pounded three Cleveland pitchers for 12 hits to win the night cap, 7 to 5.

Chief Hogsett held the St. Louis Browns to four hits as the Detroit Tigers won 7 to 2. The victory gave the Tigers the series, three games to five.

Pounding out 24 hits in the course of the afternoon the New York Giants took two games from the Phillies, 13 to 6 and 9 to 4, to reduce the St. Louis Cardinals' leadership in the National league to four games. Hogan and Ott hit two home runs each for New York, while Chuck Klein, Phillies outfielder, moved into a tie for home run leadership with Lou Gehrig of the Yankees, by hitting his 23rd of the season.

The Chicago Cubs and the Cards divided a twin bill, the Cubs winning the first 7 to 5 and losing the second 13 to 17. The games were free-hitting affairs, both clubs getting 30 hits. More than a dozen pitchers were used by the two teams.

Brooklyn's Robins and the Boston Braves also split a double-header, the Braves winning the second game 4 to 3 in twelve innings after dropping the opener 4 to 7. The Brooklyn fans all but staged a riot when Umpire Quigley called Thurston out at the plate in the twelfth inning. The umpire was given a police escort from the field.

Cincinnati surprised everybody, including itself, by bumping the Pittsburgh Pirates in both ends of a double bill, 14 to 6 and 6 to 5.

HAGEN FAVORED TO DEFEAT ALLIS

36 HOLE PLAY OFF TOMORROW IN CANADIAN OPEN GOLF AT TORONTO

Toronto, July 13.—(U.P.)—Walter Hagen of Detroit, was a slight favorite in the betting today to defeat Percy Allis, the Englishman from Berlin, in their 36-hole play off tomorrow for the Canadian open golf championship.

The play-off was necessitated Saturday when Hagen and Allis ended the regulation 72 holes in a deadlock with aggregates of 282 strokes each.

Allis took a rest from golf yesterday but Hagen journeyed to Buffalo where he teamed with Tommy Armour, British open champion to defeat Hamilton Gardner and Daune Tower, 4 and 3, in an exhibition match.

FAST FIELD OPENS WESTERN AMATEUR OPEN GOLF TOURNEY

Portland Golf Club, Portland, Ore., July 13.—(U.P.)—A summer sun today greeted the field of about 112 golfers who hoped to keep in the 70's for the first of the two 18 hole qualifying rounds for the western amateur golf championship.

When the field teed off, defending champion Johnny Lehman practiced. He was not called upon to qualify.

Lehman and others insisted that the field was faster than any that every played on the west coast. It included Dr. O. F. Willing and Don Moe, Portland Walker cup members in 1930, Francis Brown, Hawaiian and California champion; H. Chandler Egan, Medford, Ore. four times western champion; Phil Findlay, Los Angeles, former national champion; H. P. Dale champion of New Zealand and Howard Tustin, Inland Empire champion of Spokane.

RUDY VALLEE AND BRIDE TO SEPARATE, ACCOUNT HER HEALTH

Atlantic City, N. J., July 13.—(U.P.)—Rudy Vallee and his bride, the former Fay Webb, actress, will separate in the fall—solely in the interests of Mrs. Vallee's health, the radio crooner has announced.

The Vallees, here for a brief weekend honeymoon, made the announcement in advance so that "when Mrs. Vallee boards a train for the Pacific coast no one will think our romance is over."

"That romance is going to last forever and ever, and even longer than that," Rudy confided to reporters.

Mrs. Vallee has been ordered by physicians to spend her winters in a mild, sunny climate, Rudy said.

Four Are Saved From Death by Suffocation

St. Paul, July 13.—(U.P.)—Four workmen were saved from death by suffocation today when a wooden platform on which they were working lodged across the opening of an excavation as a cavein dropped them 20 feet into the hole.

John Conley was the most seriously injured of the men, suffering multiple bruises as well as a possible fractured pelvis. The other men were injured when several concrete buckets and wooden braces fell upon them.

The other injured were Fred Priebe, Patrick Cunningham and Robert Elwood. Fire and police squadrons aided in the rescue.

SAINTS CONTINUE PENNANT MARCH

TAKE BOTH GAMES OF DOUBLE-HEADER FROM TOLEDO 9-8 AND 4-3

(By United Press)

The St. Paul Saints continued their march toward the American association pennant yesterday by taking both games of a doubleheader from Toledo, 9 to 8 and 4 to 3.

Louisville, second place club, meanwhile was sharing honors with Milwaukee. Bengough's home run with two men on in the ninth inning gave the Brewers a 10 to 8 victory after the Colonels had taken the opening game 15 to 5.

Kansas City also saved itself from inglorious defeat by a ninth inning hit in its second game. Indianapolis took the first contest, 10 to 7, and was getting the second when "Lefty" Dugan, pinch hitter for the Blues, scored two men on a triple in the final inning to give Kansas City a 3 to 2 win.

Minneapolis and Columbus split a twin bill, Columbus taking the opener 11 to 1 and the Millers the nightcap 15 to 5.

Lure of the Olympics

By HARDIN BURNLEY

LEE BARNES—EX-POLE VAULT KING WHO WILL COME BACK FOR THE 1932 OLYMPIC GAMES

JESS MORTENSEN—FORMER JAVELIN CHAMP WHO MAY TRY FOR THE DECATHLON IN THE OLYMPICS—AND PAAVO NURMI—WILL TRY A COMEBACK IN THE MARATHON!

Former Olympic stars in glittering constellations are beginning to twinkle through the darkness of retirement. They'd like to shine again for the United States in the classic games that are to be held at Los Angeles next Summer. Lloyd Hahn, Jess Mortensen, Lee Barnes, Charley Borah, Johnny Collier, and even Charley Paddock (now a pleasantly portly scribble) are limbering up, some of them revealing amazing form already.

Talk of Barney Berlinger of Penn and Juggernaut Jim Bausch of Kansas, hey, as chief rivals of Finland's Paavo Yrjola for Olympic decathlon supremacy? Well, the other injured were Fred Priebe, Patrick Cunningham and Robert Elwood. Fire and police squadrons aided in the rescue.

Copyright, 1931, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

what did he do? Oh, he only surpassed the American decathlon record by 224.72 points, rolling up a total of 8,019.4 within 33.89 of Yrjola's world's record made at the Amsterdam Olympics in 1928! The rejuvenated Jess did this in the 100 meters (11 secs.), the 400 meters (52.2 secs.), the 1,500 meters (15 min. 1.4 secs.), 110 meter hurdles (15.4 secs.), shot put 43 ft. 5 1/2 ins.; discus, 136 ft. 6 ins.; broad jump 21 ft. 3 ins.; high jump 5 ft. 9 3/4 ins.; pole vault 10 ft. 6 ins.; javelin 181 ft. 10 in.

Yep, Berlinger and Bausch may be brilliant boys at that ten-event stuff, but they'd better beware of "Ol' Man" Mortensen!

And then there's Lee Barnes who won the Olympic pole vault at Paris in 1924 and who in 1929 set the present world's record of 14 ft. 1 1/2 ins. Barnes retired, but late this Spring he suddenly decided to try a comeback. His first official effort registered just a foot short of 14 feet!

Hahn, Nebraska's middle distance marvel; Collier of Boston at the sprints are again harking to Olympic calls. Of course, only one or two of these former champions can be expected to survive the many pre-Olympic tests but most of them will give the new generation—talent considerable competition.

The Sport Bug and many others would like to see some of those vets slashing records, but alas, we fear, they'd have to borrow Father Time's scythe and that never cuts anything but the old athletes themselves.

BIG BILL TILDEN WINS PROFESSIONAL TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIP

ADDS HIS NEW WON CROWN TO ALREADY PONDEROUS GROUP

SCORES 7-5, 6-2 AND 6-1 IN FINAL MATCH WITH VINCENT RICHARDS

RICHARDS SUSTAINS MINOR INJURY IN PLAYING SINGLES FINAL

(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, July 13.—(UP)—Just as though he needed the title to prove himself the world's greatest player, big Bill Tilden set about the National Professional Tennis championship, and won. So now he has won everything.

In the final match against his most earnest and least-loved foe, Vincent Richards, the scores of 7-5, 6-2, 6-1, were fair indications of the match itself.

Seven times United States singles champion, three winner at Wimbledon, a Davis cup victor more times than he may care to recall, Tilden's new title, however coveted, is only one of a ponderous collection.

Off the record, however, the Sunday victory at the West Side club, means a lot to Big Bill. Tilden doesn't say so, and won't, but he simply cannot abide the cupid-like Winnie Richards, once his heir apparent as national amateur king, and now the second man in any professional competition they enter.

Thus it was that Tilden tried too hard in the final match of the tournament. Richards, although exhausted after winning his grueling doubles semi-final contest of the day before, had his game in perfect working order at the outset. Not so Tilden. Big Bill was erratic in his return.

Richards took full advantage of lapses and for a few games of the first set it appeared that the contest would be close.

But when Tilden broke through Richards' service in the eighth game, the contest was brought to love and Winnie was never ahead after that.

Richards sustained a minor injury in playing the singles final. He fell and strained his ankle. The injury made him limp although he tried to conceal it during the final game.

Had the fall occurred earlier there would have been those to smile slyly and intimate that the hurt was only imagination.

Despite the small size of the crowds which attended the first days of the professional tournament, the competition was marked down as a success.

Crowds of more than 5,000 watched each of the last two days' play, and supplied money needed to pay Tilden his winner's prize of $1,000 and the $750 runner-up money to Richards.

Richards teamed with Howard C. Kinsey of San Francisco, to win the doubles championship over Tilden and his veteran partner, Francis T. Hunter of New Rochelle. Scores were 7-9, 7-5, 3-6, 6-4, 6-3.

The result pleased the crowd which applauded every good play of the winners and which went so far as to applaud when the other side made a misplay.

Los Angeles, July 13.—(UP)—The junior welterweight championship of the world will be at stake tonight when Tony Canzoneri, the modest little titleholder, meets Cecil Payne, the best lightweight in the west, in a 10-round bout at Wrigley Field.

Canzoneri, the New Orleans lad, also holds the world's lightweight championship, and is meeting a tough customer in Payne, who hails from Louisville, Ky. Both have agreed to make 135 pounds, although both are legitimate lightweights.

Canzoneri, in fact, has offered Payne a crack at his lightweight title if the challenger defeats him tonight.

MORTICIAN CAME FROM DETROIT BY WAIVER ROUTE

NOW DRESSED IN LIVERY OF WORLD-CHAMPION PHILADELPHIA ATHLETICS

Turns in 2 victories in 2 weeks, both over Boston Red Sox

By LEO H. PETERSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

New York, July 13.—(UP)—Waite Hoyt, the merry mortician, has made good with something resembling a bang since Connie Mack obtained him from the Detroit Tigers on waivers and dressed him in the livery of the world-champion Philadelphia Athletics.

Waite, one-time "boy wonder" of the New York Yankees, has been with the Athletics a little more than two weeks and has turned in two victories. Both triumphs were scored over the Boston Red Sox.

In his first start Hoyt allowed the Red Sox eight hits, yesterday he let them down with six.

Having proved to Connie Mack that his strong right arm still packs a punch, Hoyt probably will be sent out against stronger clubs.

The A's took both ends of a double-header from Boston yesterday, 7 to 2, and 6 to 2. The double victory, coupled with New York's 10 to 4 defeat of Washington increased the A's league leadership to six full games.

FAST FIELD OPENS WESTERN AMATEUR OPEN GOLF TOURNEY

Portland Golf Club, Portland, Ore., July 13.—(UP)—A summer sun today greeted the field of about 112 golfers who hoped to keep in the 70's for the first of the two 18 hole qualifying rounds for the western amateur golf championship.

When the field teed off, defending champion Johnny Lehman practiced. He was not called upon to qualify.

Lehman and others insisted that the field was faster than any that every played on the west coast. It included Dr. O. F. Willing and Don Moe, Portland Walker cup members in 1930, Francis Brown, Hawaiian and California champion; H. Chandler Egan, Medford, Ore. four times western champion; Phil Findlay, Los Angeles, former national champion; H. P. Dale champion of New Zealand and Howard Tustin, Inland Empire champion of Spokane.

RUDY VALLEE AND BRIDE TO SEPARATE, ACCOUNT HER HEALTH

Atlantic City, N. J., July 13.—(UP)—Rudy Vallee and his bride, the former Fay Webb, actress, will separate in the fall—solely in the interests of Mrs. Vallee's health, the radio crooner has announced.

The Vallees, here for a brief weekend honeymoon, made the announcement in advance so that "when Mrs. Vallee boards a train for the Pacific coast no one will think our romance is over."

"That romance is going to last forever and ever, and even longer than that," Rudy confided to reporters.

Mrs. Vallee has been ordered by physicians to spend her winters in a mild, sunny climate, Rudy said.

FORMER Olympic stars in glittering constellations are beginning to twinkle through the darkness of retirement. They'd like to shine again for the United States in the classic games that are to be held at Los Angeles next summer.

Lloyd Hahn, Jess Mortensen, Lee Barnes, Charley Borah, Johnny Collier, and even Charley Paddock (now a pleasantly portly scribble) are limbering up, some of them revealing amazing form already.

Talk of Barney Berlinger of Penn and Juggernaut Jim Bausch of Kansas, hey, as chief rivals of Finland's Paavo Yrjorla for Olympic decathlon supremacy? Well, of Jess Mortensen laid aside his pipe and swapped his slippers for the spiked shoes recently and—

what did he do? Oh, he only surpassed the American decathlon record by 224.72 points, rolling up a total of 8,019.4 within 33.59 of Yrjorla's world's record made at the Amsterdam Olympics in 1928!

The rejuvenated Jess did this in the 100 meters (11 secs.), the 400 meters (52.2 secs.), the 1,500 meters (15 min. 1.4 secs.), 110 meter hurdles (15.4 secs.), shot put 43 ft. 5 1/2 ins.; discus, 136 ft. 6 ins.; broad jump 21 ft. 3 ins.; high jump 5 ft. 9 3/4 ins.; pole vault 10 ft. 6 ins.; javelin 181 ft.

Yep, Berlinger and Bausch may be brilliant boys at that ten-event stuff, but they'd better beware of "Ol' Man" Mortensen!

And then there's Lee Barnes who won the Olympic pole vault at Paris in 1924 and who in 1929 set the present world's record of 14 ft. 1 1/2 ins. Barnes retired, but late this Spring he suddenly decided to try a comeback. His first official effort registered just a foot short of 14 feet!

PREDICTS RAIL CONSOLIDATION, SOLVING PROBLEMS

CHARLES DONNELLY, PRESIDENT OF NORTHERN PACIFIC, IN STATEMENT

TENDENCY TO COORDINATE MOTOR AND RAIL TRANSPORTATION WILL INCREASE

Seattle, Wash., July 13.—(UP)—Railroad consolidation was predicted today by Charles Donnelly, president of the Northern Pacific, as a means of solving the present transportation problem.

Speaking at the annual convention of the National Association of Building Owners and Managers, Donnelly said that it was inevitable that the movement toward consolidation will go forward "either under the present law, or, it may be hoped, under a law better adapted toward that end."

A tendency to coordinate motor and rail transportation will increase, Donnelly predicted.

"No amount of taxation or regulation which the public will countenance or which the railroads may fairly ask can ever drive these new transportation agencies from the field. Within limitations they mark a definite advance in transportation methods," Donnelly said.

The public will cooperate with the rail carriers to insure for them sound financial structures, it was claimed. "What specially characterizes the present depression in the railroad world as distinguished from that form which industry in general is suffering is that it is traceable in large measure to causes which will not disappear on the revival of business generally," Donnelly explained.

SPANISH-AMERICAN WAR VETERANS IN FAIRMONT CONVENTION

The Veterans of Foreign Wars motored here from their encampment at Waseca Saturday where they awarded the 1932 encampment to Little Falls.

Johnny was detained at the Maxwell street police station where he was taken after his orgy of shopping. Police were attempting to salvage part of the money from playmates to whom Johnny with a lavish hand passed out $10, $20 and $50 bills.

"All my life I've worked hard and saved $3,000," Mrs. Amato said today. "Every week I put a couple of dollars in a roll of bills I kept hidden on a top shelf behind the canned tomatoes. Last Friday the money was there—the next day it was gone."

Then two of Johnny's friends walked into Mrs. Amato's store, bought candy and paid for it with $10 bills. As they walked out, Johnny came in bearing a package and shouting:

"Look, mama. I bought you some roller skates for a present."

In his pockets was $92, all that was left of the $3,000. However, he had opened an account at a neighborhood candy store and placed $550 "on deposit," and Mrs. Amato hoped to get some of that back.

"No, I'm not going to whip Johnny when the police let him go," Mrs. Amato said today. "I'm disgusted, but anyway he brought me some roller skates, didn't he? That shows his heart's in the right place."

GRANDMA HAGBERG GETS AIRMINDED

Grand Lady of 84 Years Has Her First Airplane Ride; Greatly Thrilled

NOT FRIGHTENED AT ALL

Planes and Aviators From Local Meet En Route Today to Watertown Air Carnival

Airminded at 84 years old, "Grandma" Hagberg, who has reached that grand age, has ridden on every known vehicular means during that time and enjoyed each and every one of them, had her first airplane ride Sunday. And it won't be her last, this lady, still young, asserts.

Watching the planes soar into the sky from the Rosko Airport where the Air Carnival was conducted, "Grandma" Hagberg considered as she has before that it would be great to go up in the air. Expressing herself such she had little trouble in interesting her grandson, Arthur M. Hagberg, former district commander of the American Legion. Her great grandson, Arthur M. Hagberg, Jr., six months old also accompanied her.

This modern mode of transportation thrilled her immensely. She was not frightened in the least. To the contrary, she awaits her next opportunity for a plane ride.

"I felt safer in the air than riding on highways. The ride gave me extravagant ideas though because I now want to go up more," Mrs. Matilda Hagberg, 612 Norwood street, said as she alighted from the plane.

Mrs. Hagberg's various modes of travel includes the crossing of the ocean by ship and ox cart, horse, car and airplane transportation.

Planes Leave City

Planes and aviators who participated in the Brainerd Air Carnival over the week end were en route today to Watertown, S. D., where they will stage a similar meet tomorrow.

E. C. Elser, advance man, hopped off this morning in his Bird Wing plane and will make two stops en route to Watertown. He will set his plane down at Fergus Falls and then will change the route to land at Rochester where he will conduct business. He will arrive at Watertown tonight.

Elser expressed the appreciation of the Belle Fourche Air Lines to the people of Brainerd and district and the owners of Rosko's Airport for patronage and cooperation at the meet.

Legion officials also tendered thanks to all who assisted at the meet and to the visitors for their patronage.

Elser praised the local air field as one of the finest in Minnesota and expressed the hope that arrangements could be made for another air meet here.

The tri-motor with Clyde Ice at the controls was due to stop at Wadena on its Watertown flight today. The pilot will be joined at Wadena by his wife for the remainder of the trip.

Inclement weather kept many away from the air meet Saturday. The Sunday show however was well attended.

The featured stunt fliers, Tex Rankin and Dorothy Hester, went through the maneuvers as scheduled and drew the admiration and acclaim of all who witnessed them.

John Gisi's parachute jumps also attracted wide interest.

Mrs. Adolph Johnson Stricken at Seattle

Word is received here of the death this morning at Seattle of Mrs. Adolph Johnson, former Brainerd resident and sister-in-law of Mrs. C. Torkelson, Northeast Brainerd.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and family left Brainerd ten years ago but have since visited here several times.

Funeral rites will be conducted at Seattle Thursday. The deceased is survived by her husband, one son and one daughter. She was predeceased by a daughter in Brainerd 15 years ago.

PROSSER FINED $100 BY COURT

Highway Officer Complained of Driver Zigzagging About Road on T. H. No. 2

Frank Prosser was fined $100 in municipal court this morning by Judge J. H. Warner after a hearing of evidence of the charge of careless driving on State Trunk Highway No. 2, two miles west of Brainerd, the afternoon of July 7.

A. J. Cornell, officer of the Minnesota Highway Patrol, who entered the complaint, asserted that he followed Prosser on the highway for a quarter of a mile and found him swerving about the highway. He said that he could detect liquor on Prosser's breath and that he found half a pint of liquor in a pocket of the car.

Prosser admitted that he had had two drinks but denied that the bottle in the car was his. He said he did not know how it happened to be there.

Prosser further stated that the reason for swerving on the road was that the steering wheel on his car was loose.

TALK MURPHY'S REAPPOINTMENT

Commissioners to Consider Future Employment of County Engineer Late Today

The County Board of Commissioners was to consider late this afternoon the matter of the reappointment of County Highway Engineer Walter M. Murphy for the remaining six months of the year.

Murphy was reemployed by the board at the annual meeting in January for the first six months of the year.

The commissioners met today at its semi annual meeting. Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the board will meet as the Board of Equalization. The latter three days of the week will be devoted to inspection of roads in the county.

J. E. Tappan, real estate man, applied to the board this morning for a reduction of the taxes on his lake property at Lake Bertha in Ideal township.

Tappan said that his neighbors on the same lake were assessed less than he. He desired the valuation of his 90 lots be reduced from $5,200 to $2,700. The board voted to reduce the valuation $20 a lot on the inside lots and deferred action on the remaining part of his land until after an inspection of the property next week.

Walter Schultz of the Ideal township board, requested aid of the county in the construction of an 18 feet bridge on a township road. An inspection of the site will be made before action is taken.

E. C. Lutes, Route 1, Brainerd, complained that he was injured on November 24, 1930 when swept off a truck by a low hanging branch of a tree. He said he was on highway work at the time. A statement of a Brainerd physician said his expense was $25 and the hospital fee would be about the same.

County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan said that the county could not be held responsible for the man's injuries.

Since there was no claim for reimbursement of expenses presented the commissioners voted to leave the matter on the table.

Catches Fish and Keeps His Molars

Gilbert Lake, overlooked by many fishermen, provided a seven and a half pound walleyed pike for the hook of Joe Swindell Sunday.

And Joe who has a habit of losing his false teeth while fishing said he now can qualify as a real fisherman since this time he did not lose his molars. He also caught nine pickereel.

day to Watertown, S. D., where they will stage a similar meet tomorrow.

E. C. Elze, advance man, hopped off this morning in his Bird Wing plane and will make two stops en route to Watertown. He will set his plane down at Fergus Falls and then will change the route to land at Rochester where he will conduct business. He will arrive at Watertown tonight.

Elze expressed the appreciation of the Belle Fourche Air Lines to the people of Brainerd and district and the owners of Rosko's Airport for patronage and cooperation at the meet.

Legion officials also tendered thanks to all who assisted at the meet and to the visitors for their patronage.

Elze praised the local air field as one of the finest in Minnesota and expressed the hope that arrangements could be made for another air meet here.

The tri-motor with Clyde Ice at the controls was due to stop at Wa-dena on its Watertown flight today.
The pilot will be joined at Wadena by his wife for the remainder of the trip.

Inclement weather kept many away from the air meet Saturday. The Sunday show however was well attended.

The featured stunt fliers, Tex Rankin and Dorothy Hester, went through the maneuvers as scheduled and drew the admiration and acclaim of all who witnessed them.

John Gisi's parachute jumps also attracted wide interest.

resident and sister-in-law of Mrs. C.
Torkelson, Northeast Brainerd.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and family left Brainerd ten years ago but have since visited here several times.

Funeral rites will be conducted at Seattle Thursday. The deceased is survived by her husband, one son and one daughter. She was predeceased by a daughter in Brainerd 15 years ago.

PROSSER FINED $100 BY COURT

Highway Officer Complained of Driver Zigzagging About Road
on T. H. No. 2

Frank Prosser was fined $100 in municipal court this morning by Judge J. H. Warner after a hearing of evidence of the charge of careless driving on State Trunk Highway No.
2, two miles west of Brainerd, the afternoon of July 7.

A. J. Cornell, officer of the Minnesota Highway Patrol, who entered the complaint, asserted that he followed Prosser on the highway for a quarter of a mile and found him swerving about the highway. He said that he could detect liquor on Prosser's breath and that he found half a pint of liquor in a pocket of the car.

Prosser admitted that he had had two drinks but denied that the bottle in the car was his. He said he did not know how it happened to be there.

Prosser further stated that the reason for swerving on the road was that the steering wheel on his car was loose.

TALK MURPHY'S REAPPOINTMENT

Commissioners to Consider Future
Employment of County Engineer
Late Today

The County Board of Commissioners was to consider late this afternoon the matter of the reappointment of County Highway Engineer Walter M.
Murphy for the remaining six months of the year.

Murphy was reemployed by the board at the annual meeting in January for the first six months of the year.

The commissioners met today at its semi annual meeting. Next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday the board will meet as the Board of Equalization. The latter three days of the week will be devoted to inspection of roads in the county.

J. E. Tappan, real estate man, applied to the board this morning for a reduction of the taxes on his lake property at Lake Bertha in Ideal township.

Tappan said that his neighbors on the same lake were assessed less than he. He desired the valuation of his 90 lots be reduced from $5,200 to $2-700. The board voted to reduce the valuation $20 a lot on the inside lots and deferred action on the remaining part of his land until after an inspection of the property next week.

Walter Schultz of the Ideal township board, requested aid of the county in the construction of an 18 feet bridge on a township road. An inspection of the site will be made before action is taken.

E. C. Lutes, Route 1, Brainerd, complained that he was injured on November 24, 1930 when swept off a truck
by a low hanging branch of a tree.
He said he was on highway work at the time. A statement of a Brainerd physician said his expense was $25 and the hospital fee would be about the same.

County Attorney Arthur J. Sullivan said that the county could not be held responsible for the man's injuries.

Since there was no claim for reimbursement of expenses presented the commissioners voted to leave the matter on the table.

Catches Fish and Keeps His Molars

Gilbert Lake, overlooked by many fishermen, provided a seven and a half pound walleyed pike for the hook of Joe Swindell Sunday.

And Joe who has a habit of losing his false teeth while fishing said he now can qualify as a real fisherman since this time he did not lose his molars. He also caught nine pickerel.

GERMAN FINANCIAL SITUATION CRITICAL

ried session of the cabinet which recessed at 2:30 a. m.

The communique referred to an "emergency decree" signed by President Paul Von Hindenburg, which the cabinet drew up to tide over the present day of stress. Unless relief were forthcoming in the next 48 hours, government leaders feared the administration would fall, and extremists would gain office with the danger of violent outbreaks as the nation's economic fabric fell.

The communique said:

"The government, on the basis of an emergency decree signed by President Von Hindenburg to be issued Monday, will fully guarantee all deposits and assure tranquil development of the Danat bank's business. In view of the significance of payment difficulties, it has been suggested that the Bourse ban traffic in stocks and foreign currencies Monday and Tuesday."

The communique was issued by the cabinet, which had been sitting almost continuously for 33 hours. An American banker, interviewed by the United Press, said the effectiveness of the government's guarantee to Danat bank depositors depended on the securing of foreign credits which Germany is urgently seeking.

The United Press was reliably informed that the Danat bank's losses exceed the bank's declared capital and surplus, each of which is 60,000,000 marks. It was learned on good authority that the bank's present management headed by Jacob Goldschmidt probably would be replaced by a management gathered from the Prussian State bank and other government financial institutions.

The Danat bank was one of the biggest German financial houses. The proportions of its foreign credits to assets ranks high compared with other large German banks.

The closing of the Danat bank followed the announcement that the Berlin Bourse would be closed two days and perhaps longer. Stock exchanges in about 20 other cities throughout the country considered similar action.

Public confidence was at ebb and a panic was feared.

Runs already had begun in some instances, but the greatest secrecy has been maintained on their extent at private banks.

Meanwhile, the cabinet rejected French demands that Germany abandon a proposed Austro-German customs union and suspend her "pocket battleship" program in return for France's collaboration in an international credit of $300,000,000 needed to bolster the country's tottering finances.

It was still hoped that France would join in the loan, but meanwhile Frederick M. Sackett, the American ambassador, was said to have cabled Washington at Germany's request, appealing for aid through the Federal Reserve bank. Sackett was understood to have advised Washington that the foreign office here is convinced financial collapse is inevitable unless a large credit is granted quickly.

Berlin, July 13.—(U.P.)—A Cologne dispatch to the newspaper Tageblatt today said that news of the closing of the Danat bank caused a run on all savings deposits in greater Cologne.

The administration invoked a law limiting withdrawals to 300 marks.

Peace Urge and Progress Hit Soldier of Fortune

Wars and Revolutions Occur with Less Frequency and Are Over Before Mister Adventurer Can Join the Fracas

With the nations of the earth turning from Mars disillusioned, that hardly breed, the soldiers of fortune, find themselves at a very loose end. And it is not alone the desire for peace that irks these career hunters. Progress also has done its share to make life less attractive for the men whose very existence is fighting and a place in the sun. No more can men like Lee Christmas strike through the jungles setting up or unseating governments at will. And to make things worse, the attitude of the world today is one of recognizing governments set up by coup d'état as a defect in discouraging revolutions. Perhaps the most unfortunate fortune alive today is Rafael de Nogales, a man who has been in Mexico to Brazil and rose to be a division commander in my. Another name that comes readily to mind is that of an American now with General Chan's army in China. Alfred Batson, American author, who stirred things up in Africa until the U. S. Marines invited him to leave.

Effect of Bee Stings

The public health service says that if a person were stung by bees until the swellings added one-third to his normal size there would be no increase of weight except in the amount of formic acid injected by the bee stings. This would be so little that it should be disregarded.

Early Wine Glasses

The earliest wine glasses were of Venetian manufacture, and must have come into England about the time of Shakespeare. The use of plate for this purpose was then beginning to go out of fashion, as Falstaff indicated when he advised Mistress Quickly: "Glasses, glasses is the only drinking."

"Georgia Crackers"

The epithet "Georgia Crackers" was derived from the "cracker" or leather lash which mule drivers had on their whips with which they made a sharp crack like a pistol shot. This gave them the name of "crackers."

Itching, bleeding, protruding piles are caused by bad circulation of the blood in the affected parts. The parts become weak, flabby, almost dead. It was learned on good authority that the bank's present management headed by Jacob Goldschmidt probably would be replaced by a management gathered from the Prussian State bank and other government financial institutions.

The Danat bank was one of the biggest German financial houses. The proportions of its foreign credits to assets ranks high compared with other large German banks.

The closing of the Danat bank followed the announcement that the Berlin Bourse would be closed two days and perhaps longer. Stock exchanges in about 20 other cities throughout the country considered similar action.

Public confidence was at ebb and a panic was feared.

Runs already had begun in some instances, but the greatest secrecy has been maintained on their extent at private banks.

Meanwhile, the cabinet rejected French demands that Germany abandon a proposed Austro-German customs union and suspend her "pocket battleship" program in return for France's collaboration in an international credit of $300,000,000 needed to bolster the country's tottering finances.

It was still hoped that France would join in the loan, but meanwhile Frederick M. Sackett, the American ambassador, was said to have cabled Washington at Germany's request, appealing for aid through the Federal Reserve bank. Sackett was understood to have advised Washington that the foreign office here is convinced financial collapse is inevitable unless a large credit is granted quickly.

Berlin, July 13.—(U.P.)—A Cologne dispatch to the newspaper Tagblatt today said that news of the closing of the Danat bank caused a run on all savings deposits in greater Cologne.
The administration invoked a law limiting withdrawals to 300 marks.

Out to Beat Post-Gatty

Anxious to beat the 8 1-2 day globe-girdling record just established by Wiley Post and Harold Gatty, Joseph Lebriz (right) and Marcel Doret (left), French aces of the air, have hopped off in their monoplane (above) from Paris on a projected four-stop world-circling flight. Last heard from as they passed Moscow, the intrepid Frenchmen hope to fly from Paris to Tokio in one hop, span the Pacific to San Francisco next, fly across the American continent to New York in the third hop, and then follow the Lindbergh trail to Paris.

Peace Urge and Progress Hit Soldier of Fortune

With the nations of the earth turning from Mars disillusioned, that hardy breed, the soldiers of fortune, find themselves at a very loose end. And it is not alone the desire for peace that irks these colorful trouble-hunters. Progress also has done its share to make life interesting for the men whose very existence is fighting and a sure, Plan and radio have taken a lot of the romance out of the rise and fall of empires. No more can men like Lee Christmas strike through Southern American jungles setting up or unseating governments at will. And to make things worse, the attitude of the United States in recognizing governments set up by coup d'etat has had a most effect in discouraging revolutions. Perhaps the most colorful fortune alive today is Rafael de Nogales, who has fought in Mexico to Brazil and rose to be a division commander in the latter. Another name that comes readily to mind is that of an American now with General Chan's army in China. Alfred Batson, American author, who still is doing things in Africa until the U. S. Marines invited him to leave.

Deadly Fog
The "pogonip" is a fog composed of fine needles of ice, which occurs in winter in mountainous regions of western United States. It is reputed to be dangerous to the lungs and is greatly dreaded by the Indians.

Constitution First
The Constitution was written before the preamble, and voted upon, section by section. It was then submitted to the committee on style, which made the final draft, placing the preamble in its proper place. It was then voted upon in its entirety.

The public health service says that if a person were stung by bees until the swellings added one-third to his normal size there would be no increase of weight except in the amount of formic acid injected by the bee stings. This would be so little that it should be disregarded.

Early Wine Glasses
The earliest wine glasses were of Venetian manufacture, and must have come into England about the time of Shakespeare. The use of plate for this purpose was then beginning to go out of fashion, as Falstaff indicated when he advised Mistress Quickly: "Glasses, glasses is the only drinking."

"Georgia Crackers"
The epithet "Georgia Crackers" was derived from the "cracker" or leather lash which male drivers had on their whips with which they made a sharp crack like a pistol shot. This gave them the name of "crackers."

Great Art of Life
To prove the golden moment of opportunity, and catch the good that is within our reach, is the great art of life.—Johnson

Piles Go Quick

Without Salves or Cutting
Itching, bleeding, protruding piles are caused by bad circulation of the blood in the affected parts. The parts become weak, flabby, almost dead. Only an internal remedy can remove the cause—that's why salves, suppositories and cutting fail. Dr. Leonard's prescription, HEM-ROID, succeeds because it removes congestion, restores circulation, heals and strengthens the diseased parts. HEM-ROID has such a wonderful record of quickly ending even piles of long standing, that H. P. Dunn, Johnson's Pharmacy say one bottle of HEM-ROID Tablets must end your pile agony or money back. advt.

The MAYTAG BUILT WITH THE ENGINEERING REFINEMENT OF THE FINEST AUTOMOBILE

Until you have tried a Maytag, you cannot appreciate what such a feature as the auto-type shift lever means to you. It engages smoothly and quietly to start or stop the water action. It may be conveniently operated from any side of the tub. The action of the lever is so smooth that it is possible to move the lever from the "on" or "off" position by a light push of the fore-arm or with the back of the hand, when the hands are wet and soapy. This feature is typical of refinements throughout the Maytag.
